

WILL BE BURIED ON HIS WEDDING DAY

Clayton Reynolds, Clerk at Stan-
ifer's, Killed By Own Shotgun
While Hunting Monday

The day before Christmas was to have been the wedding day of Clayton Reynolds, a popular young clerk in the store of J. S. Stanifer. Instead it will be the day of his funeral. The young man was accidentally and fatally wounded about 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, while hunting near Moberly. He had evidently dragged his loaded shotgun through a fence and it exploded while so doing. The load took effect in his right side. Although everything possible was done that medical science could suggest, he expired at the Gibson Hospital here about seven o'clock Tuesday morning.

Harry Brotherton, of near Moberly, who was hunting with young Reynolds, was a short distance away at the time. They had been hunting together since early morning, but did not keep close together. Brotherton says that he heard the fatal shot when some distance off and thought that Reynolds had perhaps shot a rabbit. In about 10 minutes when his companion did not appear, he shouted to him, and receiving no answer, began looking for him. He soon found the boy weltering in his blood, and unconscious. The gun was behind him, half way through the fence. It was not hard to guess the story. Later Reynolds partially regained consciousness. He said that the last thing he remembered was getting over the fence. He did not know what happened after that, and was so far gone that he was able to talk but little.

Harry Brotherton went quickly to Moberly to summon aid and a physician, after he had seen the dangerous condition his companion was in. Muncy Brothers' truck loaded with furniture and other Christmas goods happened to be at the store at the time. The driver quickly unloaded the furniture and goods at the roadside, and the fatally injured boy was tenderly placed in the truck and hurried to town, to the hospital, in the futile hope of saving his life.

The young man was just 22 years of age, and was the son of Mrs. Clayton Reynolds, who only recently moved to Junction City, Boyle county, to make her home. His father has been dead a number of years. The young man had been clerking in Stanifer's store here in town for some time, and had made many friends by his energetic disposition and genial personality. He was engaged to be married to Miss Carolina Broddus, daughter of Mr. Elbi Broddus. The wedding was to have been solemnized the day before Christmas, it is said. She with the members of his family are almost prostrated over the unfortunate affair. He is survived by two brothers, Ernest and Wesley Reynolds, and a sister, Miss Rose Reynolds, and two half brothers, Hiram and Jesse Tuggle. Some time ago the deceased had become a member of the Christian church. He was a good boy and highly esteemed by all who knew him.

MUCH WHISKY IS GOING TO GERMANY

(By Associated Press)

New York, Dec. 23—Much of the whisky now in the hands of the distillers will be sent to Germany, it was learned here today. The market in England is flooded while France and other countries prefer a different kind. A transatlantic corporation, which is acting as exporting agent for much of the whisky now on its way to the seaboard, announced today it is advising all its clients to send the liquor to Germany, pointing out that warehouse space at Hamburg is cheap and the opportunity to sell it appears good. One Kentucky distiller already has arranged to ship 5,400 barrels to Germany. Exporting agents expect little difficulty in finding cargo ships to take out all the whisky American desire to export before January 10th.

FOREIGN STATES TOLD OF RED DEPORTATIONS

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Dec. 23—An explanation of the deporting of 249 radical Russians on the transport Buford, was cabled by the State Department today to "various foreign capitals." The message said precautions had been taken "to request for them safe conduct and humane treatment at the hands of authorities under whose jurisdiction they will pass en route to Soviet Russia. "They are anarchists," the message added, and "persons of such character are unwelcome in the United States and are being sent whence they came. The deportations were according to law."

Kentucky Oil Jumps To $3.10

Local oil investors were made happy by the news Monday that the price of crude oil in this territory has been advanced from $2.85 to $3.10 a barrel. This increase of 25 cents a barrel on crude oil means thousands of dollars will flow into the coffers of owners lease holders, and operators in Kentucky under the new sales price, and which is expected to greatly stimulate oil development in this state, as it is the highest figure that has ever been paid for crude oil in this territory. The oil in this territory is known commercially as Somerset oil.

Practically all operations have ceased throughout the Lee county fields until after Christmas. Roads are impassible and there is little prospect of work until conditions improve.

Formal Peace Still Delayed

(By Associated Press)

Paris, Dec. 23—Exchange of ratifications of the German peace treaty before the end of the year is considered impossible in French official circles. This opinion was formed today when the head of the German delegation announced he is obliged to return to Berlin to consult his government on the latest allied communication.

Hapgood Gets In

(By Associated Press)

New York, Dec. 23—Norman Hapgood, Minister to Denmark, and Baroness Speck Von Sternburg, widow of the former German ambassador to Washington, arrived here today on a steamship. Hapgood refused to discuss the rumor he had been recalled on the charge he had been kindly disposed toward Bolsheviks. The Baroness who was Miss Lillian Langham, of Louisville, Ky., declined to discuss her reason for returning to this country, friends said. However, it is understood she is trying to re-establish American citizenship.

JAILER DOES NOT PAY CITY TAXES

Says Judge Price In Deciding Case In Favor of Burgess Who Still Claims Residence In County

Jailer W. H. Burgess won his suit against the city of Richmond in Quarterly Court Monday, to prevent the city from collecting taxes from him, as he still claims his residence in the county. Jailer Burgess has declined to pay city taxes on the ground that his legal residence is not in the city of Richmond and that he is here only temporarily as a county official. When the city paid him a bill for keep of the city prisoners, the sum of about $12 was deducted, the amount of city taxes claimed. The jailer then brought the suit in the quarterly court to recover this amount. He obtained judgment at a previous hearing, by default, but this was set aside, and the case tried again Monday. Judge Price gave judgment in favor of the jailer. Owing to the small amount involved the city is stopped from appeal. Other cases on the docket of quarterly court Monday were as follows:

The Christmas Tree

On Christmas eve, I wake up and see a light that makes me start and causes things in my heart. A Christmas tree—oh, pretty sight—with candles, bells and balls afloat. With horns and dolls and sugar plums, and skates and trains and beating drums. And, oh, it is a wonderful tree, with things for me to see, and gifts hanging upon the side, which tinsel fairies cannot hide. A soldier doll, a doll house, too, and strings of gold come to my view, and as I look I hear sweet Christmas music, soft and clear. A merry Christmas, it seems to say. X. merry, happy, holy day!

YOUNG DOYLESVILLE PAIR IN ELOPEMENT

Romantic Effort Made By Sweethearts To Escape Parental Vigilance And Marry

Mr. Robert R. Wells and other well known citizens of Doyleville section, report an elopement of a popular young couple of that community Monday. The principals were John Tracy, a well known young farmer, son of Pendleton Tracy, at the river, and Miss Ida B. White, the 17-year-old daughter of Cal White, well known merchant at Doyleville. The young couple were last seen driving toward Irvine, and had told friends that they expected to get married. Their elopement was quite romantic. They had endeavored to elope once before but watchful parents prevented. The girl was with her mother at home when Mr. Tracy drove up in a buggy. Asking her mother to look at a cake, which she said was burning back in the kitchen, the young lady hurriedly joined her sweetheart, when Mrs. White hurried to see about the cake. When she returned her daughter was gone. Up to a late hour no news had been received from them as to where the wedding was performed.

The Christ Child

Across the snow the home lights glow
From the myriad hearths afloat,
And through the street with noiseless feet
The Christ-child walks tonight.

At silent gates outside He waits,
To find a fitting spot,
He thence the shame, if through thy bane
The Christ-child enters not.

Where joyous notes from children's throats
The old glad song begin,
Where love impels and kindness dwells,
The Christ-child enters in.

Where hale has room, pride sits in gloom,
And wrong invokes unrest,
Though green the walls and bright the halls,
He cannot be a guest.

But where the thought that angels brought
To earth's enraptured ears
God will to men and peace, again
The Christ-child, listening, hears.

He turns his feet with welcome sweet,
Enters, and there abides,
Angels know best how such are blest
Through all the Christmases.

MRS. BAXTER HAD FINE TURKEY CROP

Charles M. Embry, the veteran turkey buyer, of Moberly, says that the largest check he has ever written for any one individual's sales during the 21 years he has been buying turkeys, went to Mrs. W. A. Baxter, of the Red House section, this winter. Mrs. Baxter delivered to the firm of Embry, Asbell and Moberly, 50 head of turkeys for which she received a check for $264.80. Mr. Embry says that the turkey crop of Madison now, is not half what it was when he first began killing turkeys. He attributes this to the attention that many farmers giving to tobacco, and says the farmers' good wives are paying attention to their milk cows and selling the cream. He sees an enormous growth in dairying interests in Madison during the last few years.

TO MRS. MARY LOGAN

On the Eve of Her Departure For Her Work In Korea

On the eve of the departure of the late Mrs. Mary Logan for her noble work in Korea, Mrs. Henry Bosley, of Danville, composed the following poetic tribute, which will be read with interest by the host of friends and loved one of Mrs. Logan, now she has gone to her reward:

As I watch the crimson setting sun,
And the evening light grows dim,
I think of the beautiful gift, sweet friend,
Which you are bringing to Him.

You have given Him faithful service,
As maiden and widow and wife,
And now you are closing the chapter
With the wonderful gift of a life.

And if in the future there lies
Some vision of infinite joys,
May the dear Lord send his message of love
By the lips of one of your boys.

By the way of the West to the East,
Over the sunset sea,
He will be with thee, thy pilot and guide,
Closer than ever to thee.

Oh! blest be the land of thy choice,
And a blessing on all who may kneel
To hear the sweet tale of the cross
You have journeyed so far to reveal.

That far away country now lies
In the shadow of darkness today,
But the same sun is kissing her meadows,
The same gentle moonbeams play.

The same loving Jesus bends o'er them,
He died to save them even the least,
And hearts are just hearts, sweet sister,
In that far away land in the East.

And when moonlight and sunlight shall fade
Behind Eternity's bars,
May He place on thy glorified brow a crown,
All covered with beautiful stars.

"OLD HENRY" KILLS GARRARD FARMER

William Ray Mangled To Death Monday When Driving Home From Lancaster

Wm. Ray, a prominent Garrard county farmer, was instantly killed Monday about noon, when crossing the railroad track near Lancaster, in his car. He evidently failed to hear the approaching freight train and it ran into his automobile. It is thought by those who reached him first, that he met instant death. Both legs were broken and his body badly mangled and bruised. The machine was a complete wreck.

Mr. Ray was one of the best known citizens in Garrard county and his death is deeply deplored by every one in the community. He was about 66 years of age. He is survived by his wife, who was a Miss Coy, of Madison county, and four daughters, Mrs. Porter Warren, Mrs. Henry Arnold, Mrs. Virgil Layton and Mrs. Ray Noel, to whom the sympathy of many loving friends is extended in their bereavement.

He was a member of the Christian church at Buckeye, from which place the funeral services will be conducted this, Tuesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Ray took a prominent part in all public affairs and once represented Garrard county in the legislature, making a splendid record. The dreadful accident occurred at the railroad crossing closest to Lancaster. There seems to be a good view of the track both ways but it is evident Mr. Ray did not notice "Old Henry" or else thought he could beat it to the crossing.

Mr. Ray had been in Lancaster Monday morning and was on his way home at the time. He recently bought the Conn place on the Lancaster and Richmond pike a few miles this side of Lancaster. Formerly he lived at Buckeye.

J. Russell Gaines, 43 former county surveyor and prominent in politics in Louisville, died of heart disease after eight months illness.

A dispatch from Winchester says that Judge Shackelford passed the case growing out of the factional war between rival preachers and followers in the Church of the Living God until Tuesday, it being expected that one or the other sides will buy the contending interest in church.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN

They take their basket ball games rather seriously over in Fleming county. Profs. A. E. Arnold, Flemingsburg, and J. H. Asher, Ewing, referees, came to blows and the basket ball game which opened the new school building at Flemingsburg was not finished the other day.

The Courier-Journal said Sunday: Mrs. Harvey Chenault, of Richmond, Ky., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lewis Herrington, and Mr. Herrington, at their home on Cherokee road. Mr. Chenault, who accompanied Mrs. Chenault to Louisville, returned to Richmond yesterday. Mrs. Lewis Herrington and two children will leave January 10 for Florida, where they will spend the remainder of the winter.

This may happen in Richmond at no distant date if the paper situation doesn't improve soon. At East St. Louis, Ill., right across the river from St. Louis, the Daily Journal was printed Monday on light brown wrapping paper. The Sunday issue was made possible by using borrowed print paper for half the issue. Book paper at 1 cent a page was used for the other eight pages.

Some Splendid Advice

Harry Sommers said the other day in the Elizabethtown News that Kentucky democrats are all hoping to see Ed Morrow have a successful administration at Frankfort; and doing all they can to help him, in striking contradiction to the manner in which most republicans have viewed the national administration of President Wilson. Very true, too. Along this line the Louisville Times gives the democratic members of the State Senate, about to assemble, some very sage advice, which will be heartily endorsed by every democratic newspaper which is not blinded by partisanship to the real good of the party and the state. Editor Krock's advice is so very good that the Daily Register takes pleasure in reproducing it in part.

The Best Politics

What is to be the immediate future of the Democratic party in this State rests partly with the majority in the Senate which will assemble at Frankfort in January. If these twenty Democrats who will control the machinery of the upper house show the patriotism, the wisdom and the foresight the situation requires the party's future will be bright, indeed. If they emulate the tactics employed in the United States Senate by Henry Cabot Lodge and his followers, they will dash party hopes in Kentucky.

The Times adjures these Senators to lay party politics aside and to play the big game, the game that means progress for the State, the game that always wins in the end. It urges them to get behind nonpartisan measures of real reform that will be proposed by Governor Morrow and beyond an honest attempt to improve them if possible, to enact them into law. It counsels them, without a thought of diffidence, but as a party colleague, to play their part affirmatively in taking the schools, the prisons and the state institutions out of politics, in reforming or repealing of the primary law, in establishing a nonpartisan judicial election system and in repairing the fiscal condition in Kentucky. The Times proposes to examine measures offered by Governor Morrow with every possible care and, if it find in any of them a trace of partisanship behind a respectable guise of reform, to expose and denounce it. Equally it will expose and denounce any effort on the part of the Democrats to play politics with measures designed to carry out the platform pledges of both parties and to realize the hopes of the people of this State.

Doing A Big Work

The new Kentucky Jockey Club put racing on a high plane in Kentucky the past year. At the same time it made a lot of money for there never were such crowds before as thronged the beautiful courses at Lexington, Latonia and Louisville. The men who did these things are not going to selfishly put all their profits in their jeans. The Agricultural Department of the University of Kentucky will receive $5,000 for the development of the horse industry from a $15,000 appropriation voted by the Kentucky Jockey Club at its meeting held last week. The remaining $10,000 of the appropriation was divided among the Associated Charities organizations in the three cities where the club has tracks—Louisville, Lexington, and Covington, which means that each will receive a donation of $3,333.33, available for next year's work. What better use could it put its funds to? This is manifesting a noble spirit far-sighted and generous, in every way worthy of the big hearted men who are at the head of the thoroughbred interests in the state today.

Merry Christmas
Twelve Times a Year with
SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE

ASK any doughboy who was "over there" and he will tell you that American railroads are the best in the world.

He saw the foreign roads—in England and France, the best in Europe—and in other Continental countries—and he knows.

The part railroads have played in the development of the United States is beyond measure.

American railroads have achieved high standards of public service by far-sighted and courageous investment of capital and by the constant striving of managers and men for rewards for work well done.

We have the best railroads in the world—we must continue to have the best.

But they must grow.

To the $20,000,000,000 now invested in our railroads, there will have to be added in the next few years, to keep pace with the nation's business, billions more for additional tracks, stations and terminals, cars and engines, electric power houses and trains, automatic signals, safety devices, the elimination of grade crossings—and for reconstruction and engineering economies that will reduce the cost of transportation.

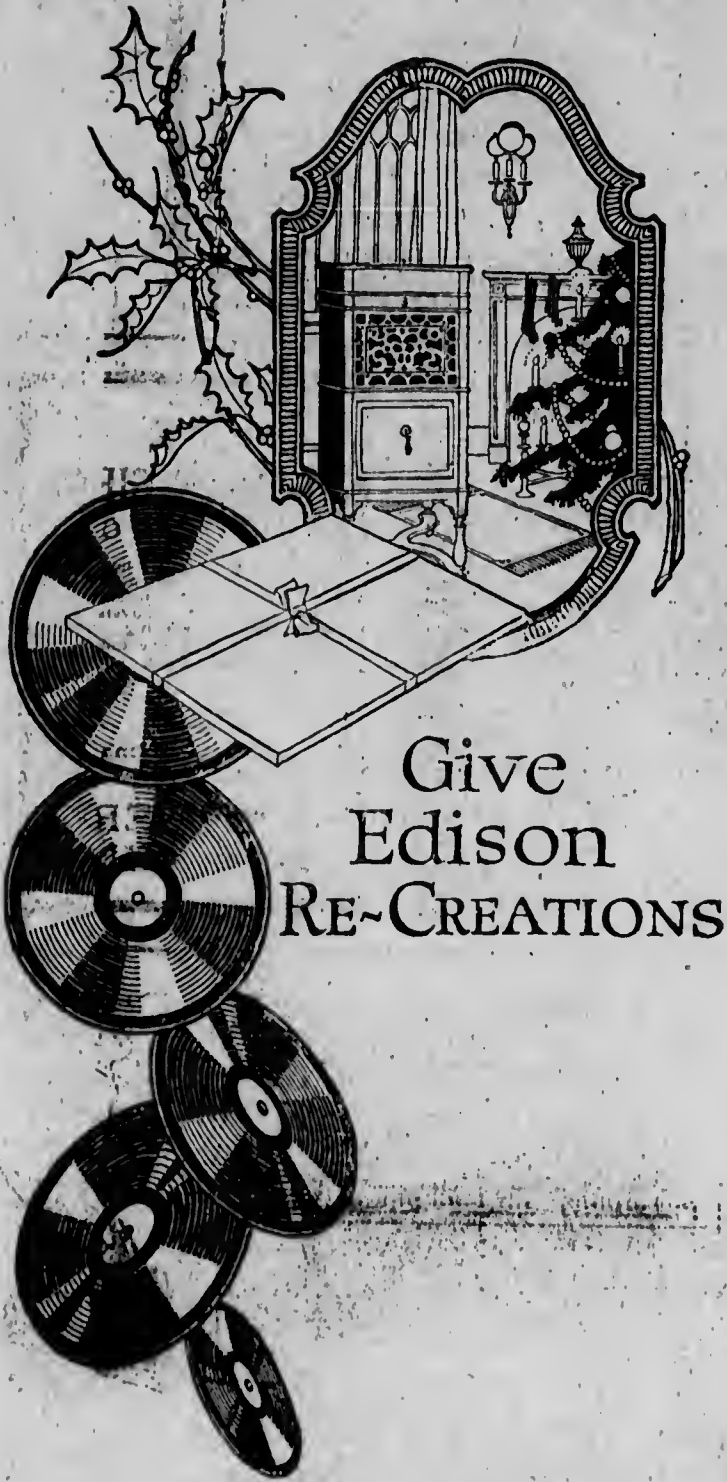

To attract to the railroads in the future the investment funds of many thrifty citizens, the directing genius of the most capable builders and managers, and the skill and loyalty of the best workmen—in competition with other industries bidding for capital, managers and men—the railroad industry must hold out fair rewards to capital, to managers and to the men.

American railroads will continue to set world standards and adequately serve the Nation's needs if they continue to be built and operated on the American principle of rewards for work well done.

Our Boys & Girls Contest closes tomorrow night at 10 o'clock

Wednesday will be the last day for you to help your favorite win in our "GREAT BUSINESS CONTEST." The boys and girls are worked up to the keenest interest, and the race for the beautiful four prizes is very close. A few sales credited to your favorite may win the coveted prize. The final count will take place in our store at 10 p. m. on Christmas eve, when the prizes will be awarded to the winners. Our books are open to the public who are interested in this contest, and we invite the friends of the contestants to be on hand at the time the prizes are awarded.

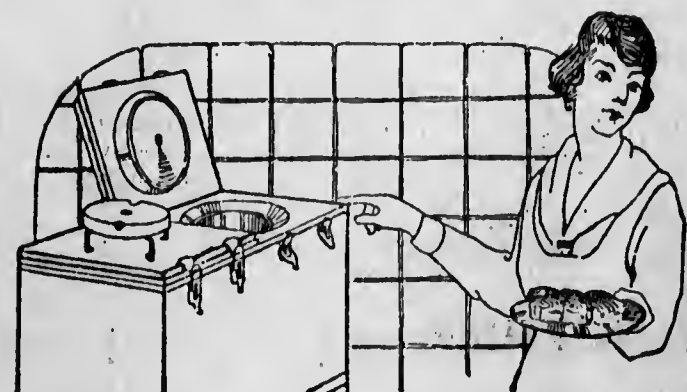

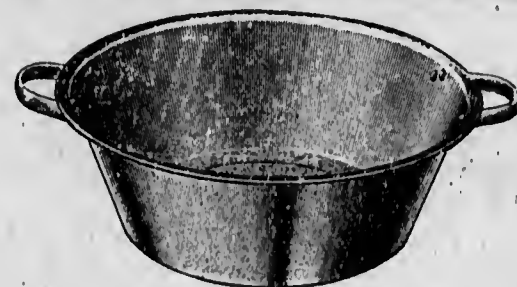

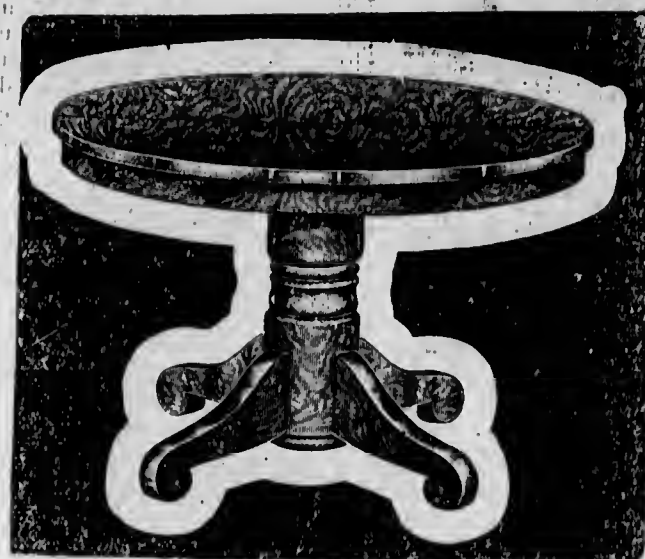

You'll find our store filled with the Christmas spirit and there will be music on player pianos and victrolas throughout the evening.

Get busy Wednesday morning and help the little girls and boys in this contest. No matter how small the article you purchase, it will help boost the contest, and will make some boy or girls happy this Christmas season.

GLAD TO TESTIFY

Says Watoga Lady, "As To What Cardui Has Done For Me, So As To Help Others."

Watoga, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town, says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly... Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache, and bearing-down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. Then... it would last... two weeks, and was so weakening, and my health was awful."

My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three... I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui.

I am married now and have 3 children... I have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui if I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others."

If you are nervous or weak, have headaches, backaches, or any of the other ailments so common to women, why not give Cardui a trial? Recommended by many physicians. In use over 40 years. Begin taking Cardui today. It may be the very medicine you need.

Want to Feel Just Right?

Take an NR Tonight

JUST TRY IT AND SEE how much better you feel in the morning. That "lumpy," headachy, tired, don't-know-what's-the-matter feeling will be gone—you'll feel fine.

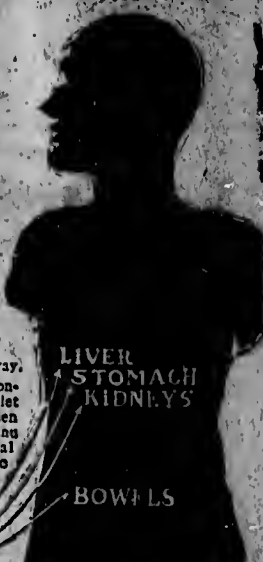

TROUBLE IS, your system is clogged with a lot of impurities that your over-worked digestive and eliminative organs can't get rid of. Pills, oil, salts, calomel and ordinary laxatives, cathartics and purges only force the bowels and prod the liver.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) acts on the stomach, liver, bowels and even kidneys, not forcing, but toning and strengthening these organs. The result is prompt relief and real, lasting benefit. Make the test. Nature's Remedy will act promptly, thoroughly, yet so mildly, so gently, that you will think nature herself has come to the rescue and is doing the work.

And oh, what a relief! You'll be surprised to find how much better you feel—brighter, better every way. If habitually or stubbornly constipated, take one NR Tablet each night for a week. Then you'll not have to take medicine every day. Just an occasional NR Tablet after that will be sufficient to keep your system in good condition—keep you feeling your best. Get a 25¢ Box

BEND

The Bend school closed Friday night with an entertainment which proved a success in every respect. There was quite a program. Most of the pupils were small. They did their part well, showing that nothing had been left undone on the part of the teacher. There was quite a crowd in attendance. It was given up that it was a decided improvement on any ever given here. The teacher, in a few well chosen remarks, told them doubtless this was her last year with them. She hoped they would continue to make good in their studies; that great things awaited them in the future, who were prepared to meet them.

Several young men and women are going to Berea to enter college the first of the year. There seems to be a decided step towards better education of late than ever before. The number of old men who can not read or write and the young men in the World War who could neither read nor write, demonstrate the necessity of educating our boys and girls. It is our belief that there ought to be a law passed requiring every boy to take a business course sufficient for ordinary business at least.

Misses Minnie Congleton, Ala Congleton and Minnie Dennis spent Sunday with Ada Smyth.

There is more sleet on the ground than has been for years. It is almost impossible to travel.

FREE TONSILCTOMY CLINIC AT MT. VERNON

The Mt. Vernon Signal says: On last Friday, December 5th, Dr. E. J. Brown, of Stanford; Drs. H. V. Pennington, and S. S. Brack, of London, and Drs. A. G. Lovell, Walker Owens and M. Pennington, of Mt. Vernon, held a clinic at Langdon Memorial Schools. Thirteen girls were operated on for adenoids and tonsils. All of the girls got along nicely and are now doing well. This was the first free clinic of this kind ever held in this county and the first free clinic ever given one of the Presbyterian Schools in North America; although the Presbyterians have schools from Canada to the Gulf, and from Alaska to Texas. It is to be hoped that this will be followed by other clinics of this character. All of the doctors present expressed a willingness to help operate or any one who needs an operation in this or any other school in the county if the patients are not able to pay for the operation, and if they can be grouped in numbers sufficient to make the clinic worth while. This clinic was made possible by the untiring efforts of Dr. M. Pennington, in co-operating with Miss A. B. Stewart in giving to the girls at Langdon Memorial School advantages that have not been enjoyed by girls in this or a like school before.
